

WEICON

1941

Foreword

*U*NDER the title of "WEICON" we respectfully submit for your consideration a review of four happy and profitable school years—four years in which we tried to the best of our ability to uphold the best interests of our Alma Mater.

The patriotic motif reflected on every page of this publication will call to your minds these troublous days when a national crisis necessitated many of us to answer the call to the colors of our country.

It is our earnest hope that every word and picture will bring smiles to your faces, pleasant memories to your minds, and a warm glow to your hearts as you read again and again what in our humble way we have written for your approval.

WOMELSDORF HIGH SCHOOL
WOMELSDORF, PA.

Alma Mater

The blue of our colors is like the azure blue of dawn,
The gold like that rich hue that is seen in the rising sun,
Short are the years we spent with thee, and ere from thee we part,
We wish to tell thee of the love that's hidden in our heart.

Chorus:

We love thee Alma Mater, and e'er to thee'll be true,
Alma Mater, Alma Mater, we love thy gold and blue;
We love thee Alma Mater, and e'er to thee'll be true,
Alma Mater, Alma Mater, we love thy gold and blue.

We love our Alma Mater dear, we love her blue and gold,
And ever at her blessed feet our treasures will unfold,
We love to hear her praises dear as swift the years roll by,
In gentle cooing of her doves that nest mid earth and sky.

The Weicon

*W*E, the senior class of 1941, when looking for a title for our year-book, could find none better than WEICON, taken from the name of that famous Berks Countian, Conrad Weiser—(WEI-ser, CON-rad).

Conrad Weiser was born in 1696, on the second of November, in Afstaedt, Württemberg. At the age of fourteen, he emigrated from Germany with his parents and a company from the Palatinates. They settled in a group in New York. Here young Conrad lived for eight months with an Indian chief, who took a great fancy to him and taught him the Indian language, so valuable during his life. In 1723, with many of his German neighbors, he settled at Tulpehocken near Reading. He engaged in farming and acquired a large tract of land in Heidelberg Township. His knowledge of the Mohawk secured him a position as interpreter for the province in 1732. He held this position as long as he could attend to its duties and was present at all the treaties made. His word was held in great respect by the Red Men. During the French and Indian War, he was commander of all the forces raised west of the Susquehanna. In his last years he lived in Reading. He died in 1760 and was buried in the family graveyard near Womelsdorf.

Conrad Weiser was the "father" of the so-called Pennsylvania Germans. Let it be remembered and repeated that our ancestry numbers in its line noble characters—men who would grace any position in life. Here is a pioneer in civilization, an honorable and an honored public officer, and historical character abreast with the men of his day. As such he left:

"Footprints that perhaps another Sailing over life's solemn main
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother
Seeing, shall take heart again."

A bronze tablet in the west wall of Stichter's Hardware Store, Fifth and Penn Streets, Reading, bears the following quotation—"Posterity will not forget his services." These words were spoken by Washington as he stood by the grave of Conrad Weiser at Womelsdorf. This memorial was purchased with money contributed by the school children of Berks County.

Finally, Conrad Weiser believed in one maxim we all can follow: "Be thyself"—a motto that is overlooked and neglected too much today. But remembering it, our hero may prove for us the words of truth in Longfellow's poem:

"Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time."

We trust that the name WEICON may live in cherished remembrance of one of Womelsdorf's greatest citizens, Conrad Weiser.

Class Motto

"HONOR LIES AT LABOR'S GATE"

Class Flower

AMERICAN BEAUTY ROSE

Class Colors

MAROON AND GREY

SHIRLEY ANDERSON

"Windy"

TO THIS lovely fair-haired girl of the senior class, we wish the best of luck. Her gay manner and ever-ready smile made her a true friend and valuable asset to the class. She is known throughout for her ability to make chocolate cakes. Although she ranks high in dramatics, we are sure that Shirley would rather dance than recite a poem. But no wonder! She is a good dancer too. There is a mystery about Shirley and the "Wind." We know Shirley will be a success in anything she undertakes. Good luck and more power to you, "Windy."

Operetta 3, 4

REBECCA BAKER

"Becky"

WHEN you happen to see a cheery and delightful person emerging out of the business room with golden tresses, you'll know that is the girl that we call "Becky." The commercial course has the whole interest of this girl, and she hopes to make use of it no doubt as nurse secretary to some handsome doctor. Good luck, and here's hoping you get that job.

Operetta 1, 3; Music 1, 3; Orchestra 1; Class Secretary 1

DAISY BASHORE

"Daisy May"

DAISY MAY, a friend to all, has been a member of the class since going to school. Blue-eyed, and brown-haired, Daisy has a keen sense of humor. Being enthusiastic, she is a willing, efficient class worker. Whether medical-secretary or housekeeper, we wish you the best of happiness and success.

Operetta 1, 3, 4; Band 4

1941

CARL BIRGER

"Kennie"

ENERGETIC in every respect, Carl is a member of the honor group of the senior class. Although he has been with us for only four years, he has a host of friends. He has been a member of the band and orchestra since his freshman year. We all know that Carl will succeed in his career as a mechanical engineer. Your Alma Mater is proud of your scholastic record.

Operetta 1, 3; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Music 1; Athletics 3; Class President 1, 2; Vice President 4; State Band 4; District Band 2, 3, 4

VIVIAN BRIGHT

"Fefe"

THIS charming young girl joined our class in her junior year. Womelsdorf High has indeed been rewarded in the short time she has spent with us. She has taken an active part in the Senior Class Activities, especially serving as the class treasurer. We know that the Nurses' School of Training that she plans to enter will be proud of her.

Dramatics 4; Music 3; Operetta 3, 4; Debate 4; Class Treasurer 4

BETTY DISSINGER

"Dissy"

BETTY, better known as "Dissy" to her friends, enjoys arguing on whatever question pops up. Her familiar face is found among the candy boxes of the refreshment stands. Willingly she has devoted her services to the class. Betty has not yet completed her plans, but whether it be housewife, nurse, or secretary, Best of Luck!

Operetta 1, 3, 4; Music 1

EDWARD ERIE

"Charley"

IN 1937 a hundred and sixty pound lad entered the Womelsdorf High School. He turned out to be "Ed" Erie, better known as "Charley" to his friends. Although he has been at Bethany for nearly nine years, he still is proud of his home residence, Allentown. He enjoys his studies if nobody mentions Geometry. We wish him the best of luck and hope he remembers us when he "Chucks 'em for Mich."

ISABEL FICHTHORN

"Isy"

AFTER dismissal you might hear a loud laughter coming from one of the class rooms. If you would inquire as to who it might be, it would be, "Isy." Her daily task of keeping the blackboards clean occupies most of her spare time, but she does not neglect her studies. Her best pal is a blond-haired lad. What will it be, "Isy"? Housewife or teacher?

Opera 1, 4, 4; Music 3; Dramatics 4

HAROLD GASSERT

"Hank"

THE Marx Brothers have nothing on Harold "Tom Harmon" Gassert—as he always has a joke at his disposal. On the football field he is unsurpassed; in the class room, there is no one quite so energetic or outspoken. Gassert is well liked by his classmates. Best of luck and smooth sailing, "Hank."

Athletics 1, 4

MARGARET GRIMES

"Mickey"

THIS energetic girl joined our happy group in the second grade. Her ability leans mostly towards athletics, especially basketball. "Mickey" has also won herself honor as an artist. Being a home town girl, she has been a valuable asset to the class scholastically and socially. Whatever you may undertake, we wish you the best of success.

Operetta 1, 3, 4; Band 2, 3, 4; Assistant Treasurer 4; Vice-President 1; Athletics 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramatics 4

MARIE HEFFELFINGER

"Taps"

THIS attractive girl has cherished the love of her classmates for twelve successive years. Her talents as a dancer have remained unexcelled throughout her high school career. Always so cheerful and energetic, Marie has done her best in any task allotted to her. Her cooperativeness in all our undertakings has won her a host of admirers. To our class poetess, we wish the best of success and happiness in her vocation as a laboratory technician.

Operetta 1, 3; Band 2, 3, 4; Dramatics 4

MARY HOFFA

"Peanut"

THIS dark-haired girl, known to all as "Peanut," is one of the youngest members of our class. She loves to jitter-bug with Robesonia lads best. We all hope Mary will be a great success at hair-dressing. Later, well, no doubt, a Photographer's wife.

Operetta 3, 4; Music 1, 3; Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Band 3; Debate 4.

EFFIE HOWER

"Eppie"

EFFIE is a true friend to all and is liked by everyone. She certainly shows her talent in art, and also while playing basketball. We all know she is going to be a success when she enters nursing. Good luck, Effie!

Operetta 1; Athletics 2.

ELLIOTT LA ROSE

"Eddie"

AND thus, folks, is our blond classmate of the N.Y.A. His body is always behind the broom, but his spirit is always at Bashore's restaurant. Nevertheless "Eddie" has a serious side as can be seen in his masterpieces of art, and underneath that toupee there is really a brain that functions. Best of luck to a very congenial and well-liked fellow.

Vice President 3; Dramatics 4

WILLIAM LEISEY

"Bill"

"BILL" has taken the opportunities that Womelsdorf High offered him and made them a success. In athletics he became one of the five Lions. Scholastics gave him a place on the honor group. He plans to have a career in Chemistry. The class knows you will be a success, "Bill," and wishes the best in all your efforts.

Dramatics 4; Athletics 4; Band 4; Orchestra 4; Operetta 4; District Band 4

1941

JOHN LENGEL

"Johnnie"

AS PRESIDENT for two successive years, this ambitious young man has competently managed the affairs of our class. Though he is quite a garrulous person, he seldom reaches the point of boredom, for he is ever ready to tell some witty joke. Despite his love of humor, he does not willfully neglect his studies. Basketball, especially, has won him a position among the Womelsdorf Lions. Johnnie, may your leadership qualities help you to achieve success in your chosen field.

Athletics 3, 4; Class President 3, 4; Dramatics 4; Operetta 3

VERNA LUTZ

"Lutzie"

THIS dark-haired girl comes from Tamaqua and joined our class in the ninth grade. "Lutzie" enjoys sewing and cooking and is the Drummer Girl in our band. Good luck in your hair-dressing career, Verna. Let us know when you open your "beauty parlor."

Operetta 1; Orchestra 3, 4; Band 3, 4; Music 4

GEORGE MACNEAL

"Fatstuff"

THIS lad from Bethany is pianist for the High School. His one ambition is to have a successful career in music. He is one of the few that finds a good laugh in everything. As a friend and classmate George has been true and helpful. May your best friends be Success, Happiness, and Good Luck. Your Alma Mater will always be proud of you.

Operetta 1, 3, 4; Band 1 3, 4; Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Debate 2; Music 1, 2, 3, 4; District Band 3, 4

DORIS MITCHELL

"Mitch"

THIS well-liked girl is very quiet at times, but nevertheless joins in a good laugh with all of us. She became a member of our class in the fall of '37. Her sole interest is to become a nurse after leaving the walls of Womelsdorf High. Best of Luck; the whole class is for you.

Band; Orchestra; Operetta

BETTY SUE NANTZ

"Betty Sue"

FROM behind that dark pallor that is typical of Southern women, a pair of blue eyes reflects personality, shrewdness, and brilliancy. To this talented Miss from the Blue Grass Region of Kentucky we hand a bouquet for her ability to hypnotize an audience with the strains from her violin. Betty Sue ranks high scholastically and in many other lines such as art and athletics. Her endless train of admirers, both male and female, have been annexed by her pleasing personality and carbonated laugh. To this 5'4" of TNT we extend best wishes for success in whatever she undertakes.

Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Band 2, 3, 4; Dramatics 4; Operetta 1, 3, 4; Class Secretary 1; State Orchestra 4; District Orchestra 3, 4; Athletics 1

MARY NANTZ

"Evelyn"

WHEN Mary, 5'5" and eyes of brown, came up from the South, she immediately gathered herself a carload of friends and has kept them ever since. Although at times she appears to be a quiet girl, she has a pleasant and exciting personality. She can easily find a joke in almost anything and, as a result, sometimes can get the whole room of people laughing without saying a word. Her ability for playing the trumpet is far above the high school average, and thus we know you'll be a success in anything you undertake, Mary! Lots of luck.

Operetta 1, 3, 4; Music 1; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Athletics 1

RUTH M. PUTT

"Putt"

THIS sophisticated lass of brilliant intellect and charming personality is purely an optimist and is always an attraction for masculine eyes and glances. She plans to enter the nursing profession via Hahnemann Medical School route, and we certainly wish her the greatest amount of good luck and happiness in future life.

4, 4; Class Vice President 2, Class Historian 3, 4; Debate 1, 1; Dramatics 4

JACK SAURES

"Jack"

"SMILING JACK" describes this jovial lad from B.O.H. His enthusiasm and congeniality have made him very popular. Jack is very active in dramatics and dominant in scholastics. His sidekick is none other than Rev. Gebhard—who advises that Jack follow in his footsteps—teaching the gospel to a tribe of sinners. We know not what the future holds, but we do know Jack will make the most of it and come out on top.

Orchestra 1, 1; Music 1, 2

LAURA SCHOENLR

"Lollie"

LAURA entered our class during her senior year and has indeed established an enviable record. The first impression of this brown-eyed girl leads one to think she is of a quiet nature, but working with her during the past year has introduced us to her real self. Wherever mischief is to be found, there is "Laura" to be sure. Even though her pranks were numerous, her lessons were not neglected. Whatever she plans to take up after she graduates is not yet certain, but we all know she is the type to succeed.

RICHARD SHERMAN

"Rich"

IN THE seventh rung of our ladder to success this young and handsome lad joined us. His cheerful disposition will always linger in the hearts and minds of all his classmates. May your road to success be bright.

Dramatics 4; Athletics 4

ROHLAND STAGER

"Stumpy"

DID you ever see a short lad talking at the rate of a mile a minute? That's right, it is "Stumpy" Stager. An expert in German translations and in throwing everyone into an uproar when he makes a mistake while typing. His ability to keep up a conversation might win him honors as an orator. Who knows? Time alone will tell.

Athletics 1, 2, 3, 4; Dramatics 4

MARK WENRICH

"Buck"

MARK never has much to say, except when it comes to football and baseball. These are his pets, and usually he picks the winner. But the laugh that he possesses is quite unusual and can be easily detected several feet away. Science and Mathematics have his full interest, and he is bound to make a success of his labors and studies.

Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Athletics 1, 2, 3

1941

FRANK WHITING

"Goo-Goo"

FRANK joined the class as a freshman from Bethany Orphans' Home. A cooperative and continuous worker of the class, he has won the honor and respect of all his classmates. His many accomplishments have made him a decided asset to the class. Frank hopes to find his career in the field of Chemistry. With his vitality and intelligence we are sure he will attain this goal.

Operetta 3; Debate 2, 3, 4; Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4; Music 1, 2, 3, 4; District Band 4

KATHRYN WITST

"Kax"

KATHRYN has been with us since her first year of school. She has been a willing worker all the way. She has participated in many class activities and has done her part to help her class along. We knew that she was a determined girl and that she will be a success in whatever she may indulge.

Operetta 1, 3, 4; Band 2, 3, 4; Debate 3, 4; Class Secretary
Music 1, 2, 3; Class Treasurer 1; Dramatics 4

In Memory of Herbert Schoener

I watched a falling star last night,
And once more I thought about you—
You who departed from life,
Bubbling with life,
In everything you used to do.

We grieved for you,
What fools were we!
Will folly never cease?
In this world of wars and dictators' powers?
You are gone—but you at least have peace.

No more will I grieve to see a fallen star,
For I know where it goes—like you—
Life for it never ends,
And again like you—it leaves
Behind it a perpetual world of friends.

—MARIE HEFFELFINGER

Senior Class Poem

CLASSMATES, let us pause a little in the onward rush of time,
Let us pause and get our bearings, ere we face the unknown clime
It's our schooldays that we're leaving, it's a mighty step we take.
Ties bound tight by joy and sunshine we are summoned now to break.

BUT, but not forget them, classmates, looking back through these four years,
Fix them well in memory's stronghold, there are far more smiles than tears,
Yes, our high school course is ended, but the radiance that was spread
'Round our lives on this old school ground will through the coming years be shed.

WE ARE sad to leave the old school, we are loath to part with friends;
There's a tightness around our hearts that no stranger comprehends.
But the time is come; we've played our part, and played it well.
Remains but to say to each and all, good-bye, God speed, farewell!

—MARIE HEFFELFINGER

CLASS OF NINETEEN FORTY - ONE

Senior Class History

HAVING passed the last milestone, we take one last look back over the tread of years.

Through the course of the years we either gained or lost pupils by promotion.

Although we were not always successful in our efforts, "We never gave up the Ship."

Our Senior year led us to realize that through cooperation we obtained the best results.

The year was filled with very many activities, such as the Hallowe'en Dance, Chancing of Turkeys, Selling of Christmas Wreaths, Class Play, Operetta, Suppers, the Simple Fair, Bingo, Card Party, Thanksgiving Dinner, Cake Sale, Selling of Easter Ham, and Nickelodeon Dances.

Our class officers did their utmost best to make the year a success.

We wish to thank graciously and heartily those who have aided in our success, the teachers, pupils, parents, and the townsfolk.

Although we may be gone from the corridors and from the class rooms, we nevertheless cannot forget them. We are taking the biggest step of our lives, "Out of High School into Life's School."

Class Will and Testament

We, the class of 1941 of the Womelsdorf High School, of the County of Berks and the State of Pennsylvania, being physically fit, morally responsible, and mentally alert, do hereby declare, make, and publish this, our last will and testament in manner and form as follows:

- One*—We direct that all our obligations be met and fulfilled as soon as is possible.
Two—We give and bequeath to the Junior Class our sense of humor and our dignity.
Three—We give and bequeath to the Sophomore Class our ambition and inherent ability to achieve success in all we undertake.
Four—We give and bequeath to the Freshman Class our stick-to-it-iveness throughout the coming years.
Five—We give and bequeath to the school at large our desire to practice the "Golden Rule."
Six—We give and bequeath to the faculty our hope to endeavor with the aid of God.
Seven—We give and bequeath Shirley Anderson's faithfulness for her boy friend to Verda Dissinger.
Eight—We give and bequeath Rebecca Baker's masculine manner to Selah Troutman.
Nine—We give and bequeath Daisy Bashore's likeness for blondes to Janet Weber.
Ten—We give and bequeath Carl Berger's scholastic and athletic abilities to Neal Hamaker.
Eleven—We give and bequeath Vivian Bright's phrase, "I'm sorry," to Harold Batdorf.
Twelve—We give and bequeath Betty Dissinger's weakness for the opposite sex to Ellen Greenthal.
Thirteen—We give and bequeath Edward Eric's interests in baseball and other sports to Joseph Miller.
Fourteen—We give and bequeath Isabel Fichtborn's love affairs and use of cosmetics to Janet Gross.
Fifteen—We give and bequeath Harold Gassert's "sparkling" attitude toward girls to John Sohn.
Sixteen—We give and bequeath Margaret Grimes' cooperativeness and love for shop students to Helen Schoener.
Seventeen—We give and bequeath Marie Hefeltinger's dancing feet to Helen Althouse.
Eighteen—We give and bequeath Mary Hoffa's ability to utterbug and likeness for "peanuts" to Mildred Stachel.
Nineteen—We give and bequeath Effie Hower's bashfulness and love for sciences to Dorothy Exceman.
Twenty—We give and bequeath Elliott LaRose's love for a certain soda fountain girl to Mark Eberly.
Twenty-one—We give and bequeath William Leusey's height and cheerful disposition to Melvin Hoover.
Twenty-two—We give and bequeath John Lengel's coquetting and leadership qualities to Paul Heck.
Twenty-three—We give and bequeath Verna Lutz's domestic and commercial abilities to Mary Rahti.
Twenty-four—We give and bequeath George MacNeal's musical ability and excess weight to Elwood Flukinger.
Twenty-five—We give and bequeath Doris Mitchell's attractiveness and shyness of manner to Arthur Rhoads.
Twenty-six—We give and bequeath Betty Sue Nantz's musical talents and huarious laugh to Kathleen Ilig.

Junior Class History

WE started our scholastic history in the first grade with an enrollment of 22 girls and 17 boys. Our grade school years passed quickly while participating in programs for the benefit of the high school and other numerous grade activities. After completing the first six grades, our class was enrolled in the 7th grade which was our first year of Junior High School. During these three years we had Home Room Activities and were started on assembly programs. Next was our sophomore year, the year in which all classes begin to think seriously about filling their treasury, but this year was not very profitable except for a few dollars collected from dues. In our present junior year we hope to fill our treasury with the cooperation of 35 pupils now enrolled in the class. Our soup sale and sale of Christmas cards were very profitable, and we hope to complete our task by having a dance, merchandise club, carnival, card party, bingo party, and sale of stationery. So far this year we have participated in assembly programs and have cooperated in various activities with other classes for the benefit of our Alma Mater and will do so for the remaining year of our high school life.

some very trying experiences on the ball field. I was once struck senseless by a ball."

"And when," asked Mr. Gibson, "do you expect to recover?"

Sunday School Teacher—"Elliott, what parable do you like the best?"

Elliott LaRose—"The one about the multitude that loafs and fishes."

* *

Richard Sherman—"I put a tack on
Mr. Burkhart's seat yesterday."

Jack Sauers—"Did you? I bet he won't sit down in a hurry."

Richard Sherman—"No, neither will I."

* *

"Now, before we go any further, shall we agree there's no use kidding ourselves?" said the salesgirl confidentially to Ruth Putt at the corset counter.

* *

Son—"Daddy, may I ask you a question?"

Mr. Groce—"Yes, son, but it must be a short one."

"If a doctor is doctoring a doctor, does the doctor doing the doctoring have to doctor the doctor the way the doctor being doctored wants to be doctored, or does the doctor doctoring the doctor, doctor the doctor the way he usually doctors?"

"You can't get eggs with out hens," said Mr. Wagenhurst to John Lengel.

"My grandfather can," argued John.
"Please explain yourself, young man," answered Mr. Wagenhurst.

"He keeps ducks," replied John.

Weiser had secured a large amount of land, some of which tradition says he got in the following manner—

Chief Shekallamy went to Weiser, saying, "I had a dream. I dreamed that Tarachawagon (Weiser) had promised me a rifle." Conrad, we are told, handed over the gun. Some days later Weiser had his dream. He went to the old chief, saying, "I dreamed that Shekallamy presented me with a large and beautiful island nestled in the Susquehanna River."
The chief deeded over the land, and then said, "Conrad, let us never dream again."

History of Womelsdorf

ACCORDING to authoritative sources, Womelsdorf, our home town, was founded in the year 1792 by John Womelsdorf. However, records show that in 1723 thirty-three families had begun a settlement at the site of our present town. When this settlement was made, Washington had not yet been born, the Declaration of Independence was still fifty years away, and the Constitution of the United States was sixty-five years away.

Little information concerning the growth and activity of the settlement from the date it was founded until the Revolutionary War can be found. However, it is known that the tiny settlement and its surrounding country bore the brunt of savage Indian attacks during pre Revolutionary Days. Womelsdorf, or Middletown, as it was called, had one character of distinction in that period. The name of Colonel Conrad Weiser has gone into the history of Pennsylvania as a famous Indian interpreter and pioneer. Col. Weiser accomplished much in establishing the peace between the settlers and the Indians in Pennsylvania.

During the Revolutionary War, the settlers contributed a great deal to the winning of independence. A greater part of the settlers eagerly marched with the army of freedom for the cause that many men of the town and country later gave their lives to save.

With the War ended, the time for growth and progress had come. The great Easton Road was built. This road contributed much to the growth of the town. It was at this time known as Middletown, because of its situation along the road.

In 1792 Womelsdorf erected its first church. At the same time the Union Canal was started. In 1793 Womelsdorf was honored by a visit by George Washington, our first President.

Between 1816 and 1817 the town was named Womelsdorf for its founder, John Womelsdorf. In the year 1817 the first post office was established. At about the same time Rev. John Schulze, later twice elected Governor of Pennsylvania, assisted his father as resident pastor in Womelsdorf.

In 1833 Womelsdorf was incorporated into a borough. There is little known about the growth of the borough between 1833 and 1875. In 1894 the trolley line was built between Reading and Womelsdorf.

With the beginning of the twentieth century, Womelsdorf, as well as neighboring towns, had become well established as an industrial town. Factories and mills spring up, employing men of the borough. The town by this time had a population of about 1,000 people. In the years following, there were not many changes. Old familiar faces passed away, new faces took their places and, as all other towns, Womelsdorf flourished. The people known as Pennsylvania "Dutch," were industrious and progressive. New mills were founded, the population was increased, until, in 1940, it had reached 1500.

And so from a little settlement near the banks of the Tulpehocken grew a town, founded by hardy pioneers, typical of hundreds of towns throughout our country.

We, as citizens of this town, can certainly be proud of our ancestral heritage, which struggled through the dark days of strife with man and the elements to produce a progressive and one hundred per cent community.
